Each participant is required to have medical/health insurance in the event of an injury. Injuries can result from participating in any organized sport. Every effort is taken to provide coaches the proper training procedures to reduce and avoid injuries. Should any child received a concussion during the course of the season, a medical or healthcare provider must submit a written release to resume practices and/or games. For more information regarding concussions, please visit: cdc.gov/headsup/youthsports.
